Belle Baby Carrier adds style!

Belle Baby Carrier, (pronounced "Bell-ay") designs and manufactures luxurious, high-style baby carriers made from the best materials available. We refuse to cut corners in the manufacturing of our products. The Belle Baby Carrier was meticulously designed by Seth Murray and Mark LeBeau, fathers and outdoor enthusiasts who have enjoyed a long history of design and engineering in the climbing industry, where concern for product safety and functionality prevail.

The name Belle is a joyful reference to Seth and Mark's daughters - named Isabel and Isabelle respectively.

The Belle Baby Carrier is extremely easy to use without any assistance. See instructional video. A great alternative to a baby sling, the Belle Baby Carrier is ideal for infants 10-25 lbs.
