The Belle Baby Carrier... Truly worth every penny!

I had the pleasure of getting one of these Baby Belle Carriers and I have to say they were worth every penny. I mean to the point where you know you're getting quality when you find out some of the hottest celebrities are using these to carry around their bundles of joy.

The carrier comes in a variety of colors which I love the one I received which is the orange blossom which you can see in the top right corner of the picture.

The retail price of this are $99.95 and they truly are worth every penny. The way the baby sits and how they set it up allows for even weight distribution and less stress placed on your back.

When Fil's brother's fiancée (yes that is a mouthful) found out she was pregnant with her 2nd child. I got together a gift basket for her to make her life a little easier. Of course I waited til the safe marker to give it since I did not want to jinx anything. I included this number and she absolutely loved it. The material is soft and she can't wait to use it!

I have to say a lot more retailers are picking up on it too. I'm surprised one of the bourgeoisie stores of the Hampton's haven't picked it up yet! However, this is the perfect gift for yourself or for a pregnant friend!
