CARRIED AWAY

The benefits of babywearing speak for themselves: happy moms and babies everywhere swear that frequent carrying makes babies cry less, sleep better, and smile more. And there's even research to back up those claims: carried babies cry up to 43 percent less than those who aren't part of a babywearing duo, according to one study! If you're thinking about venturing into the world of babywearing or just looking to add a new carrier to your collection, find your perfect fit in one of the many diverse (and downright gorgeous) carriers among these pages.

FRONT OF THE LINE

Snuggly settled against their mamas' chests, our baby models were nothing but smiles in these front carriers. Offering a bit more structure than other styles, these picks are excellent for long wear and mom's peace of mind.
